

TUNE-D IN

An event produced in collaboration with Impact Dance and The Place, as part of Onibudo's role as Associate Producer on the Changemakers Programme.

TUNE-D IN was a project and event which brought together youth dance companies and young musicians to create new pieces of work. Participants aged 13-19 collaborated over seven months and received mentorship from musician Steve Blake and choreographer Lea Anderson.

Drawing on their passion for diverse styles of music and dance, Onibudo paired groups together that had never worked with each other. The main outcome of this project was that the young people had to be the ones to create the work and not their group leader.:

- Artistry Youth Dance Company and Youthsayers
 - Impact Youth and Rebekah Rayner
 - Lotus Youth Dance Company and The Rhythm Studio (ft. Trinity Laban CAT student Myla Newell)
 - Shift and Raw Material
 - Iris Supple-Still and Nathalie de Leuw
